event

Join BASW England at this free fringe event, to learn more about the role of social workers in disasters and the important role they play.

With speakers representing Hillsborough, Grenfell and the Manchester bombing we will be looking at the perspective of those who have lived through these tragic events and those working to develop and re-define the role of social workers and to improve training and preparedness for such events in the future.

Speakers:

- Margaret Aspinall
Hillsborough Families Support Group
- Mariam Raja
Independent Social Worker
- Bernadette Enright
Director of Adult Services, Children and Families Directorate, Manchester City Council
- Lyn Romeo
Chief Social Worker – Adults,
